Holiday Lights Walking Route

Until January 6, 2026, enjoy a Holiday Lights Walking Tour through Downtown Langley to visit these five festive locations.

- 1 Langley City Hall
Take in the view of the outdoor plaza all decked out in a holiday light display. Find parking in the Langley City Hall lot, free for three hours.
- 2 Douglas Park
Spot the Merry Christmas sign above the Douglas Park Spirit Square Stage, then gaze at the breathtaking giant Sequoia Christmas tree with over 1,100 lights. Continue your cheerful walk through the park for even more lights.
- 3 McBurney Plaza
Enter McBurney Plaza to be immersed in the wonder of lights and festive displays. Take a selfie with the giant walk-through ornament and find a whimsical woodland scene on the south-side of the plaza. Keep an eye out for giant presents!
- 4 Fraser Highway
Stroll the famous Fraser Highway one-way strip to see over 80 lit up trees and Christmas banners.
- 5 Innes Corners Plaza
Gaze in wonder at thousands of twinkling lights, gorgeous wreaths, starbursts in the fountain, and two giant snowflakes in Innes Corners Plaza.
